

Template for Change Project outline

Give input and description for each of the headlines below.

To be attached with application form for International training program LoCoFoRest Course 1 in 2021, last day of application 1st March 2021.

Submit with application form to locoforest.apply@skogsstyrelsen.se.

For a joint Change Project proposal with more than one applicant, you can submit the same proposal with both individual applications.

Note that this is the first suggestion for a Change Project to be supported by the organisation. During the course there will be possibilities to further develop the concept from impulses from mentors and course participants, however with continued ownership by the participant and the organisation.

For information www.locoforest.se.

Title of the Change Project

Applicants name

One individual or several individuals jointly.

Applicants' organisation(s)

Short description of the background and core activity with its potential for improvementChange Project objective

For example, to analysis feasibility for developing new value-chains, new extension programs for restoration, ways to identify/improve support to ecosystem services within existing business models, new production technologies, new engagement strategies or new support actions for smallholders or entrepreneurs. List of examples available at locoforest.se, page about Change Projects.

Target groups

Who will carry out the changed activity, who are the beneficiaries?

Organisational benefits and challenges

Available resources

Please note that no funding is available from Sida or the project partners for project implementation other than the training supervision.